

LANCASTER GENERAL HOSPITAL
ACGME POLICIES

In Reference to ACGME Institutional Requirements – Effective July 1, 2022

IV.G.1. Institutional GME Policies and Procedures: The Sponsoring Institution must ensure that residents/fellows are provided with health insurance benefits for residents/fellows and their eligible dependents beginning on the first day of insurance eligibility. (Core)

Process Name:	Resident/Fellow Health & Disability Insurance
Effective Date:	09/25/2023
Who is the policy's expert(s):	Designated Institutional Official
Who is responsible for compliance:	Lancaster General Hospital Human Resources & the LGH Designated Institutional Official
To Whom does the policy apply:	Residents/Fellows of all Lancaster General Hospital ACME accredited Graduate Medical Education programs
Process:	All residents/fellows matched to a Lancaster General Hospital ACGME accredited Graduate Medical Education program are provided with health insurance and other benefits for them and their eligible dependents, beginning on the first day of employment. (See related policies and documents.)
Related Policies and documents:	Penn Medicine Lancaster General Health Summary of Benefits (separate Resident and Fellow summaries, updated annually), SBC LGH Consumer Plan, SBC LGH Select Plan, Human Resources Benefits webpage Lancaster General Health (lghealthbenefits.com)